

GIRLS EXPLORING MATH + SCIENCE

OVERNIGHT REGISTRATION

Spend the night at the Museum and stay for the Girls Exploring Math and Science annual event! Girl Scouts will have the opportunity to enjoy the Museum’s permanent exhibit halls after hours, settle down to sleep in one of our Museum halls, and wake up in time to experience the GEMS community and student booths with your troop on Saturday!

WHEN IS THE GEMS OVERNIGHT EVENT?

Friday, February 19th, 8:00pm through Saturday, February 20th, 9:00am

WHO CAN REGISTER?

This event is open exclusively to Girl Scouts, Girl Scout Leaders and Girl Scout parent chaperones. HMNS requires a minimum of 2 adult chaperones for any size group 1-10 girl scouts and at least 1 adult for every 10 girl scout participants. Girl Scouts must abide by their own safety guidelines as well as any other guidelines outlined by their council for Overnight events. Unfortunately, due to the popularity of this event, only scouts will be allowed to register. Siblings are not permitted at the GEMS Overnight.

WHAT IS THE PRICE PER PARTICIPANT?

The registration fee is $65 per person for HMNS members and $80 for nonmembers; the price is the same for children and adults.

This fee includes access to Museum permanent exhibit halls after hours, garage parking, HMNS Overnight patch, late night snack, sleeping in a Museum hall, continental breakfast, and admission to the Girls Exploring Math and Science event as well as the Museum’s permanent exhibit halls on Saturday, February 20, 2016.
